

A Pilgrimage to England with The Order of Julian of Norwich

September 17–28, 2012

Hosted by: The Rev. Dr. Gwynne Wright, ObJN

Pilgrimage is an outward expression of an inward voyage of the spirit. Daily prayer and reflection will thus form the basis of our journey to shrines, cathedrals and monastic sites, both ancient and modern. England is unique in that many of the cathedrals began as monastic foundations, so we will have the opportunity to visit some of England's finest cathedrals, as well as the ruins of medieval abbeys and priories. Most significantly, we will have the opportunity to visit the shrine of our Blessed Patron Mother Julian in Norwich. All of these sacred places will tell their stories; yet because pilgrimage is not simply a tour of historical places, we will also have the opportunity to encounter this journey with one another and in prayer 'in the spirit of Blessed Mother Julian.'

Our pilgrimage follows a tradition of generations of Christian pilgrims who have traveled to sacred places in prayer and reflection to deepen their own spirituality. In the prayerful spirit of the Order of Julian of Norwich, we will have Eucharist and daily offices each day. Depending on schedules, we may take advantage of prayer in the sacred places or conduct our own worship. Each day will have time for discussion and quiet reflection.

Monday, September 17 –
Thursday, September 20:

Salisbury

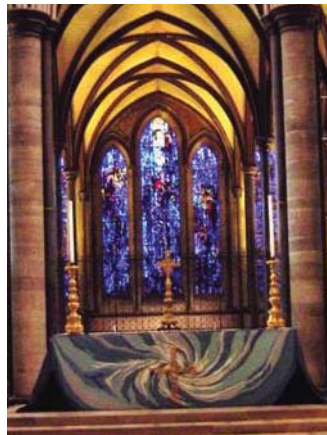

Pilgrims should plan to arrive in Salisbury by 3PM. Our base for three nights will be Sarum College, located within the Cathedral close. Sarum College provides refurbished meeting rooms and bedrooms offering uninterrupted views of Salisbury's stunning cathedral.

While in Salisbury, we will visit Salisbury Cathedral, which was completed as a single construction project in 1258 and boasts the tallest spire in England. We will also visit George Herbert's home and have leisure time.

A day tour to Oxford will also be offered, with Evensong at Christ Church.

Thursday, September 20 –
Monday, September 24:

Canterbury

Following breakfast, we travel to Canterbury. Our base for four nights will be at the Cathedral Lodge, a three-star hotel located within the walled and secluded grounds of the Cathedral. Each room has a superb view of the Cathedral, the mother church of England and the Anglican Communion. Canterbury is where St. Augustine brought the Christian message and the monastic rule to England. While in Canterbury, we will have a tour of the Cathedral and a Candlelit pilgrimage. We will visit St. Augustine's Abbey and the burial place of St. Augustine. We will also visit St. Martin's Church which predates Augustine's arrival and within whose walls people have worshiped for over 1,400 years. There will be free time allowed for exploration and meditation.

Monday, September 24 –
Friday, September 28:

Norwich

Following breakfast, our coach will transfer us to Norwich where we will have the remainder of the day at leisure. Our accommodations will be at Maids Head Hotel, a three-star hotel adjacent to the Norman Cathedral. In Norwich, we will have the opportunity to visit the Cathedral which has the largest cloister in England as well as a labyrinth. We will also have a day trip to the Shrine of Our Lady at Walsingham, a traditional and sacred space for pilgrims. The highlight of our pilgrimage will be a visit to Julian's Shrine, where we will have time for prayer and reflection and a private Eucharist in Julian's Cell.

Friday, September 28:

Depart London

After breakfast at the Maids Head Hotel, transportation to London's Heathrow Airport will be provided with approximate arrival time at 11 AM.
